Durham Seeks Public Art Committee Applicants

June 29th Application Deadline

DURHAM, N.C. – Durham residents with a love for art now have another opportunity to serve on the Durham Cultural Advisory Board Public Art Committee.

The Board, charged with advising the City Council on implementation of the Public Art Policy approved in November 2011, is searching for five new members to fill Public Art Committee positions replacing terms that expire on June 30, 2015. Members serve for two-year terms to begin in July 2015.

The Durham Cultural Advisory Board serves as an advisory body to the City Council and the City Administration. The Public Art Committee advises the Board and acts on behalf of the Board on matters relating to public art in the City of Durham.

The committee is charged with assisting the City of Durham's Office of Economic and Workforce Development and advising on the implementation of the Public Art Policy. The committee also reviews proposals for public art projects brought to it by the City Administration and makes recommendations to the Durham Cultural Advisory Board regarding project approvals.

The committee meets on the third Wednesday of each month at 8:30 a.m. at the Durham Arts Council in downtown Durham. Members serve without compensation and must reside or work within the city limits, and actively contribute to the cultural and economic sectors. Priority in appointments will be given to city residents. The application deadline is 5 p.m. on Monday, June 29, 2015, and applications can be downloaded from the City's website.

Completed applications should be sent to Senior Manager for Economic Development Grace Dzidzienyo with the City's Office of Economic and Workforce Development at 807 E. Main St., Suite 5-100, Durham, N.C. 27701. For more information, contact Dzidzienyo by email or call (919) 560-4965, ext. 15206.

About the Office of Economic & Workforce Development

Guided by the City's Strategic Plan, the Office of Economic & Workforce Development helps ensure that Durham has a strong and diverse economy by increasing the city's tax base through several revitalization initiatives, including new development efforts in the central city area. The department also plans and promotes cultural awareness and events, identifies and recruits target industries as well as assesses and trains Durham residents to fill new jobs.
