Fast Facts

- The 2015-2016 Durham Youth Commission will be hosting 120 teens and 20 advisors from 12 chartered youth commissions from throughout the state for the N.C. State Youth Council 2016 Teambuilding and Leadership Conference. Communities represented include Cary, Durham, Fayetteville, Goldsboro, Hickory, High Point, Lake Norman, Raleigh, Rocky Mount, Thomasville, Wilson, and Winterville.
- During this three-day conference, teens will explore and identify certain traits that great leaders share in common that they can practice and adopt to become more effective in their respective roles as youth commission members.

- Local news media are invited to attend this conference and interview youth from across the state who are active in their local youth commissions.
- For more information on Saturday's event, including news media assistance during this event, contact Senior Community Relations Coordinator Evelyn Scott with the City's Office on Youth at (919) 354-2730, ext. 11104 or by email.
