Registration Open for G.R.E.A.T. Summer Camp

Durham Police Department's G.R.E.A.T. (Gang Resistance Education and Training) Unit is accepting applications for its 2017 summer camps for youth ages 9 to 13. G.R.E.A.T. Camps are provided free-of-charge and can accommodate up to 30 youth each session. Three week-long sessions are offered:

- Session 1: June 19 to June 23;
- Session 2: July 10 to July 14; or
- Session 3: August 14 to August 18.

DPD's summer camps build upon the school-based G.R.E.A.T. curriculum by offering youth an opportunity to enhance their social skills; giving youth positive alternatives to gangs and other negative peer groups; adding structured youth activities to the summer months; and strengthening law enforcement's relationship with participating youth and their families.

Each camp operates weekdays from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Drop-off and pick up is at Eastway Elementary, 610 Alston Avenue. Throughout the week camps will also feature a variety of recreational and educational field trips to area attractions and venues.

Applications for 2017 summer sessions are online at www.durhampolice.com (click Community Resources, then Online Forms); Police Headquarters, 505 W. Chapel Hill Street; and from G.R.E.A.T. officers. Completed applications must be returned May 1, 2017, to the On-Duty Desk Officer on the first floor of Police Headquarters. For information, contact Ofc. A. Gill by email or at 919-623-7833.
