DPR Hosts Rock the Park Series

Participants Can Enjoy Concerts and Movies in the Park

DURHAM, N.C. – This summer residents can catch a movie and/or groove to music at the Rock the Park Concert and Movie Series sponsored by Durham Parks and Recreation (DPR). This series is free and open to the public.

Participants will enjoy R&B, Reggae, and Latin Jazz music as well as family friendly movies. All concerts are held in various parks from 6 p.m. - 8 p.m. and the movies are held at Durham Central Park (501 Foster Street) from 8:30 p.m. - 10:30 p.m.

The series will officially kick-off on Saturday, June 10 at Duke Park (106 W. Knox St.) with an R&B band featuring Dale Kimber.

Attendees should bring their own lawn chair/blanket as seating will not be provided. Food vendors will be available. No smoking or alcohol allowed.

Due to licensing laws, DPR cannot mention the name of the movies showing. Click here for a full listing or call 919-560-4355. Please see the schedule below:
