Rock the Park with Durham Parks and Recreation

Enjoy Concerts and Movies in the Park this Summer

DURHAM, N.C. – This summer, residents can catch a movie and/or groove to music at the Rock the Park Concert and Movie Series sponsored by Durham Parks and Recreation (DPR). The series is free and open to the public.

The concerts are held in various parks from 6 p.m. - 8 p.m. and the movies will be held at Durham Central Park, 501 Foster Street, from 8:30 p.m. – 10:30 p.m. The series will officially kick-off on Saturday, June 9 at Duke Park, 106 W. Knox Street, with Reggae band ReggaeInfinity.

Attendees should bring their own lawn chair/blanket as seating will not be provided. Food vendors will be available. No smoking or alcohol allowed.

Throughout the summer participants will enjoy Reggae, Jazz and R&B music as well as family-friendly movies. Due to licensing laws, DPR cannot mention the name of the movies showing on promotional materials.
