DPR TO HOST ITS ANNUAL LATINO FESTIVAL

Thousands of participants expected to celebrate the Hispanic culture in Durham

DURHAM, N.C. - On Saturday, August 11, participants will enjoy entertainment, activities, and food at the Annual Latino Festival sponsored by Durham Parks and Recreation.

The festival is free and will be held at Rock Quarry Park, 701 Stadium Drive, from noon – 5 p.m. The rain location is the Holton Career and Resource Center at 401 N. Driver Street.

The purpose of the festival is to share Hispanic traditions and folklore with Durham residents. Participants will enjoy live music, great food, as well as learn about the many health, education and service resources available in Durham.

There will be a host of hands-on activities for youth as well as the opportunity to create traditional Latin crafts. Soccer enthusiasts can also watch the tournament finals.

Music and dance groups will perform including: Sajaso; Amanecer Latino; Caique Vidal & Batuque; Ballet Folklorico; Takiri Folclor Latino and Los Rumberos Stars.
