Subject: Public Comments

Chair Langley opened the floor for public comments and provided guidelines for individuals to speak including virtually and on the phone callers.

No one spoke.

The floor was opened for comments from Board members.

Chair Langley made comments regarding high profile adverse interactions with law enforcement that are taking place in other communities and asked the public to be thoughtful. The Police Community Relations Forum is a proactive way to keep peace in the community. He wants citizens to be aware of the complaint process and encourages citizens to file a complaint when they think conduct of a police officer is not appropriate.

Subject: Announcements

There were no announcements from the Board.

With no further business to come before the Board, Chair Langley adjourned the meeting at 6:40 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,

Tonette Amos, Office of the City Clerk
