Durham Hosts Continuum of Care Grant Funding Workshop

Pre-Registration Required by March 29

DURHAM, N.C. – Durham is hosting a free workshop for representatives of organizations interested in applying for grants in the 2019 Continuum of Care (CoC) Homeless Grants Competition.

The workshop will be held on Tuesday, April 2 at 10 a.m. at the City's Neighborhood Improvement Services Department, located at 807 E. Main Street, Building 2, Suite 300. The workshop will review how CoC funds from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) may be used to help fund short-term and permanent housing for homeless persons and families, and how to use a secure ZoomGrants website to submit required qualifying documents to the City's Community Development Department.

Due to limited space, interested organizations are allowed to send a maximum of two representatives to the workshop, and pre-registration is required. To pre-register, organizations should email the names of their representatives by March 29 to Senior Analyst Lloyd Schmeidler with the City's Community Development Department. Organizations that have not pre-registered may not be admitted to the workshop.

The City's Community Development Department serves as the Durham CoC's lead agency, staffing the collaborative effort to address homelessness and facilitating the development of the community's annual CoC grant application to HUD. Information about HUD's Continuum of Care program is available at the HUD Exchange.

For more information about Durham's CoC program, visit the website or contact Schmeidler at (919) 560-4570, ext. 22267 or by email.
