

(mobile)

For Details Contact

Wil Glenn, Public Affairs Manager
919.560.43 22 x29197 | 919.943-6845

Media Advisory

For Immediate Release: June 6, 2019

Local Law Enforcement Leaders will Join Durham Police Chief C.J. Davis to Stand United Against Gun Violence Tomorrow

DURHAM, N.C. – Local law enforcement leaders will join Durham Police Chief C.J. Davis in a stand of solidarity against gun violence on Friday, June 7, at 11:30 a.m. A press conference will be held in observance of National Gun Violence Awareness Day at Durham Police Headquarters, 602 East Main Street, Durham, NC 27701.

Who: Durham Police Chief C.J. Davis, Durham County Sheriff Clarence Birkhead, Fayetteville Police Chief Gina Hawkins, Morrisville Police Chief Patrice Andrews, Apex Police Chief John Letteney, North Carolina Central University Police Chief Frederick Hammett, Duke University Police Chief John Dailey, N.C. State Highway Patrol Major Daryl Conley, Chapel Hill Police Captain Danny Lloyd, State Senator Floyd B. McKissick Jr., State Senator Mike Woodard and Moms Demand Action NC Chapter Leader Jessica Hulick.

What: National Gun Violence Awareness Day Press Conference

When: Friday, June 7, 2019, at 11:30 a.m.

Where: Durham Police Headquarters Multi-purpose Room, 602 East Main Street, Durham, NC 27701