Chat with a Durham Police Officer on National Coffee with a Cop Day

Members of the Durham Police Department (DPD) will sit down and chat with residents over a cup of coffee during National Coffee with a Cop Day on Wednesday, October 4.

Coffee with a Cop Day is a national initiative designed to help break down the barriers between residents and officers, build trust, and to discover mutual goals for the community. This is an opportunity for residents to speak with Durham officers in a friendly, casual atmosphere without agendas, presentations or speeches.

Coffee with a Cop Day events will be held at four locations:

District 1

Biscuitville*
1806 Holloway St.
6:30 a.m.-8 a.m.

Districts 2 & 3

Target/ Starbucks*
4037 Durham Chapel Hill Blvd.
11a.m.-1 p.m.

District 4

William's Gourmet Kitchen
2114 East Hwy. 54
8 a.m.-10 a.m.

District 5

Unscripted Durham Hotel
202 N. Corcoran St.
8:15 a.m.-10:15 a.m.

Free coffee provided for attendees*

This is one of several events that will be observed as part of DPD's National Crime Prevention Month activities.
