Durham Seeks Community Votes for Bimbé Cultural Arts Festival Logo Design Contest Online Voting Closes February 4

DURHAM, N.C. – Want to have a say in the logo design for the 50th Anniversary of the Bimbé Cultural Arts Festival?

The City of Durham is now seeking community feedback on its Logo Design Contest through a voting portal to select the design that will be used as the official logo for this year’s festival.

An Artist Selection Committee comprised of Durham Parks and Recreation staff and Public Art Committee representatives have selected four submitted design concepts from three artists as finalists from the wide range of proposals submitted through an open call for all talented and creative people living or working in the Research Triangle area. Designs were required to commemorate the family-oriented festival that celebrates African and African-American culture, arts, and traditions.

The top three artists selected for the contest are Sarahlaine Calva, Joseph Churchwell, and Jermaine Powell. These finalists will be awarded $250 for each of their designs. Community members are now needed to help to select the winning design by exploring the four logos and voting for their favorite through the City’s voting portal. Online voting will close on Monday, February 4 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The design receiving the most community votes will be awarded an additional $500, and the winning logo will be printed on the festival’s merchandise and branding materials.

For more information about this logo contest, contact Special Projects Manager Stacey Poston with the City’s General Services Department at (919) 560-4197, ext. 21254 or Stacey.Poston@DurhamNC.gov.

About Bimbé Cultural Arts Festival

Bimbé Cultural Arts Festival was established in 1969 to honor the West African tradition of harvest and celebration. Throughout the years, Bimbé has found homes in Duke Gardens, Hillside Park, North Carolina Central University, UDI Industrial Park, and the Durham Athletic Park, before landing at Rock Quarry Road Park. This year’s free event will take place on May 18 from noon to 8 p.m. and promises to be a day filled with the tradition of sharing, celebration, and appreciation of gifts and talents!
