

Event 2 Reverse pressure is created by a drop in water pressure. Dangerous chemicals can then be drawn into the drinking water supply through a hose (also known as a cross connection).

Event 1 Water pressure is reduced because of a break in the water main.

