Durham Parks and Recreation Hosts Egg Hunts

Eggs-perts Search for Eggs on Land and in Water

Durham, NC: In March, children 12 years and younger will have the opportunity to put all of their eggs in one basket at Durham Parks and Recreation's Annual Egg Hunt.

Participants will have to make a splash to find eggs at the Spring Egg Dive on Saturday, March 12 at Campus Hills Pool (2000 S. Alston Avenue) 5:30 p.m. – 7 p.m. An adult will need to enter the water with a child(ren) 9 years old and younger. Life jackets will be provided. The cost ranges from $5-11.

On Saturday, March 19, eggs-citement will be in the air at the two Egg Hunts scheduled to be held at Campus Hills Park (2000 S. Alston Avenue) and West Point on the Eno (5101 N. Roxboro Road).

The event at Campus Hills Park will take place from 10:30 a.m. – 11:15 a.m. There will be games, activities and more. Prizes will be awarded to the eggs-pert that finds the golden eggs.

The Egg Hunt at West Point on the Eno will be held from 10 a.m. – 11 a.m. and will include a special guest appearance by the Easter Bunny, crafts, games, face painting and more!

For more information call 919-560-4355.

About Durham Parks and Recreation
